

Library News

Did you know that our library features several talented TMBC authors – Hugh Wease, Herb Paschal, Rick Bailey, Glenn Jonas, Charlie Carlson, and Mark Jones? And now, TMBC is honored to add two more: Walter Byrum’s Exploring Contemplative Possibilities in Corporate Baptist Worship and Willamina Sugg’s Bye Bye, Ta Ta: A Breast Cancer Journey. These books are all labeled “Local Author.”

A special thank you to Pat Stansell and her mother, Ethel Donovan, for the library's large collection of well-loved Karen Kingsbury books. These books fill two shelves on the back wall of the library.

Some of our latest additions include the following:

The Council of Dads: My Daughters, My Illness by Bruce Feiler

Brush of Wings by Karen Kingsbury (found in the special section noted above)

The Confident Mom by Joyce Meyers (found in the parenting section by the door)

The Reason for My Hope by Billy Graham

Gone but Not Lost: Grieving the Death of a Child by David Wiersbe (found by the door in the section for times of grief)

My Unforgettable Memories: Watchman Nee by Lily Hsu,

How Amazing: A Prison Testimony by Esther Wang

VeggieTales: Look and Find (currently on the table in the Children’s Room).

Unless otherwise indicated or checked out already, new books are found on the tables. The library is unlocked whenever the church is open. Easy self-checkout procedures are on the desk. Now, TMBC members can also go to catalog.tmbc.org to check the library's collection of titles and authors from their homes.
