

Boyd Media Center News

The Young Readers' Challenge is off to a great start with many enthusiastic children participating. Everybody is excited! It's not too late for any upcoming 1st – 6th grader to join in the fun. Please come to the media center for entry forms.

Thank you to those who have recommended books and Bible studies and who have donated books to the media center. The collection keeps growing better and better!

Here are a few of the most recent additions:

Pulitzer Prize for Fiction finalist Godric

Newberry Honor Book Wolf Hollow (reminiscent of To Kill a Mockingbird)

New York Times' Best Seller Serafina and the Black Cloak

Eugene Peterson's Run with the Horses: The Quest for Life at its Best

The Treehouse, series popular with children and Convictions: How I Learned What Matters Most by renowned religious scholar, Marcus Borg.

Recommendations for the media center may be sent to mmchesson@yahoo.com. The catalog may be easily accessed through the church website, www.tmbc.org, or catalog.tmbc.org. Come check out Boyd Media Center!

Special Contributions

The Progressive Class has donated Coach Tony Dungy's Quiet Strength and its accompanying Bible study for men, Discover God's Game Plan, to the Boyd Media Center in memory of Kemp Ewing, husband of Terese, father of two daughters, and son-in-law of Demi and Sue Mack. This book selection is fitting for Kemp's career and character.

The Progressive class has also donated A Fistful of Heroes: Christians at the Forefront of Change in fond memory of Frank Saunders, who joined TMBC in 1961. Frank, a former professor who always liked to learn more would have enjoyed this book about 18th and 19th century reformers and liberators.

Thank you, Progressive Class, for your caring and thoughtful gifts to the Boyd Media Center in memory of these loved ones.
