

Library News

We are having fun with the Young Readers' Challenge again this year. These upcoming kindergarten through sixth graders are serious about their reading! There are many good books in our library to keep them interested. These books have been generously provided by church members passing on their children's books or by funds from the Hooker Family Trust. Because of the Hooker family's interest in Boyd Memorial Library, the library does not need any money from the budget! We are thankful and blessed to be the recipient of this wonderful gift.

We are thankful also for our recent book donors who have added more great books and DVDs to our collection. These include Jen Hatmaker's Interrupted: When Jesus Wrecks Your Comfortable Christianity (from Elva Ann Hales); Same Kind of Different As Me (DVD from the Journey Sunday School Class); Karen Kingsbury's To the Moon and Back (from Pat Stansell); The Seven Sayings of the Saviour on the Cross; Jan Karon's In This Mountain; and several more from David Jeremiah (Prayer: The Great Adventure, Winning the Battle Through Prayer (with DVD), and Overcoming Loneliness (with study guide and CDs). If a book that we already have in the library is donated, we do our best to place it in a good home.

We have something for everyone! Come check out your library!
