

Library News

From Librarian Marcia Chesson:

First, to the youth who have been reading for the Young Readers' Challenge, I say "well done." To all our students and teachers, I wish you a great year. Don't forget about our resources here. Let me know how I can help you. (mmchesson@yahoo.com)

Second, and not less important, thank you to all who have greatly improved our collection with contributions from your own libraries. Your donations are making wonderful additions. Check out one of our newly catalogued books:

Kisses from Kate – the inspirational story of a young woman's work in Uganda

Good Good Father for Little Ones – a delightful book from Chris Tomlin

No Greater Glory: The Four Immortal Chaplains and the Sinking of the Dorchester in WWII – an amazing story of heroism and faith during this disaster

Font of Life: Ambrose, Augustine, and the Mystery of Baptism – written by Pulitzer Prize winning author Garry Wills

Desire of the Everlasting Hills: The World Before and After Jesus – a well-told history by Thomas Cahill

Paul the Convert – a scholarly study of Paul and his writings

Love Story – a Baxter family story of love and faith from #1 New York Times Bestselling Author, Karen Kingsbury

I Survived the Destruction of Pompeii, AD 79 – from a popular series for young readers

Serafina and the Splintered Heart – the third in this best-selling series

You can find the new books for adults on the round table. You can also go to the church website to access the catalog or go directly to catalog.tmbc.org. Don't forget we have family movies also!
