

Boyd Memorial Library News

Now is the perfect time to “fall” into a good book, and the library has plenty of good books. Thank you to all the generous donors who have shared their books and DVDs. New books are being catalogued weekly. Children’s seasonal books can be found on the table in the Children’s Room.

Below are a FEW new additions:

For Children and Youth – (The reading level and AR points are indicated on the title page of each book, if applicable.)

Kingsley’s Meadow (DVD)
Thanks for Thanksgiving
Thanksgiving Day
Pumpkin Countdown
Who Was Mother Teresa?
I Survived the American Revolution
What Was the Great Depression?

-
For Adult Readers –

Billy Graham and Me: 101 Inspiring Personal Stories
Cross Roads - by Wm. Paul Young, author of The Shack
You’ll Get Through This: Hope and Help for Turbulent Times – from Max Lucado
Chicken Soup for the Grieving Soul
Revelations: Visions, Prophecy and Politics

Have a Very Happy Thanksgiving!