Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise Him, all creatures here below.

Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host. Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

LET THY GOODNESS BIND MY WANDERING HEART TO THEE

CHORAL PSALM

O My Soul, Bless God the Father

Chancel Choir

Words from Psalm 103, American Folk Hymn (Sacred Harp, 1844), arr. Walter Ehret

O my soul, bless God the Father, all within me, bless His name; bless the Father and forget not all His mercies to proclaim: who forgiveth thy transgressions, thy distresses all who heals, who redeems thee from destruction, who with thee so kindly deals.

Far as East from West is distant, He hath put away our sin. Like the pity of a Father hath the Lord's compassion been.

As it was without beginning, so it lasts without end. To their children's children ever, shall His righteousness extend.

*Unto such as keep His covenant and are steadfast in His way, unto those who still remember His commandments and obey.
Bless the Father, all His creatures, ever under his control, all throughout His vast dominion, bless the Father, O my soul.*

If you desire membership in this congregation, you are invited to present yourself to the Pastor during the singing of the Hymn of Response. If you have been baptized as a follower of Jesus, we will receive you based on your previous baptism. If you have not made a confession of faith, we invite you to do so and to present yourself for Christian baptism. Church members are invited to use this time to reflect upon their covenantal relationship with God and their commitment to Christian service. The altar is open for those who wish to pray.
